

Term insurance

- Some term plans offer a return of premium feature, where the premiums paid throughout the policy term are returned if the policyholder survives the term.
- This ensures that the money paid towards insurance isn't lost if no claim is made.
- Your family is financially secure in your absence gives you peace of mind, especially during retirement years when you may no longer have the same income.
- Term insurance can be a vital component of a senior citizen's financial planning, offering both immediate protection and long-term benefits.
